Day 3 | Lisbon

Dom Pedro Lisboa

Lisbon. Lisbon is one of the most beautiful and intriguing cities in the world. This morning, take a tour of the city and learn more about its history, which includes a significant role in the Age of Discovery. Begin with a drive along the Avenida de Liberdade in the heart of the city. See the statue of Marques de Pombal, one of Portugal's most famous statesmen, as you drive along the leafy boulevard. Next, take a look at Portugal's role in the exploration of the New World. Many world-changing expeditions began in Lisbon. See the 20th-century landmark, the Monument to the Discoveries, which honors several individuals who played integral roles in Portuguese exploration, and the Tower of Belém, which commemorates Vasco da Gama's pivotal journey as the first European navigator to sail from Europe to India. Walk in the footsteps of famous explorers and discover Portugal's seafaring heritage at the Hieronymites Monastery, where monks offered spiritual support to the world explorers setting out on their great adventures. Construction began on the monastery in the late 15th century, the dawn of the Age of Discovery. The monastery, along with the Tower of Belém, is a magnificent example of Portuguese architecture of the time. Continue to see the Estrela district to get a glimpse of everyday local life. (Moderate)

Free Time: Spend the rest of the day getting to know Lisbon at your leisure. Enjoy lunch, explore a local museum, or browse through local boutiques. The choices are yours!

Elective Activity: Fado Dinner. Savor a delicious dinner of Portuguese cuisine and enjoy a fado performance. Fado is a traditional music genre, featuring melancholic and soul-stirring guitar and vocal arrangements. (Mild) Available at an additional cost.

Day 4 | Lisbon

Free Time: Join today's Elective Activity or enjoy a full day at leisure in Lisbon. Once you are done exploring the city center, head to Chiado, a charming neighborhood with many theaters, bookshops and cafés. This area of Lisbon has been a magnet for writers, artists and other creative types since the 19th century.

Elective Activity: Queluz , Cascais and Estoril . Set out on a guided tour of the National Palace of Queluz and admire its exquisite architecture, which showcases the evolution of baroque, rococo and neoclassical styles. Often described as one of Portugal's most elegant royal residences, the palace offers a glimpse into the grandeur and pageantry of Portugal's royal past. Explore its beautifully decorated rooms and surrounding gardens, where numerous celebrations and performances have taken place over the years. Then continue on a scenic drive that takes you past Cabo da Roca, continental Europe's westernmost point and along the pretty Guincho Beach to the picture-perfect towns of Cascais and Estoril. These two villages are popular summertime retreats for both Lisbon residents and international visitors alike. Stop in Cascais for a guided picturesque walk, and drive through Estoril on your return to Lisbon. Lunch will be included at a local establishment during the tour. (Moderate) Available at an additional cost.

Enrichment: Contemporary Portugal. Learn about Portugal today while discussing the events and people that shaped the modern country.

Day 5 | Óbidos | Coimbra | Porto

MS Amalia Rodrigues

Following breakfast, check out of your hotel.

Óbidos. Explore pretty Óbidos, where the city's architecture seamlessly blends styles from the Middle Ages onwards. Sitting atop a hill, this location was settled millennia ago for its strategic location. In the 13th century, King Dinis presented the town to his wife as a gift. For centuries after that, Portuguese queens were the custodians of the town, beautifying it and lavishing attention upon it. It is known as one of the most beautiful towns in the country! (Moderate)

Continue to Coimbra. Upon arrival, enjoy traditional Portuguese cuisine for lunch.

Coimbra. Built atop an ancient Roman city, Coimbra occupies an important location along the Rio Mondego. The city was Portugal's medieval capital, and in 1290, the doors to its prestigious university opened. At the University of Coimbra, visit St. Michael's Chapel and a historic ceremonial hall. (Moderate)

Arrive in Porto and embark your first-class river ship. Later, gather with your shipmates and join a Welcome Reception and Dinner to kick off your cruise.

Day 6 | Porto

MS Amalia Rodrigues

Personalize Your Journey | Choose one of the following excursions.

Porto City Tour. Explore the vibrant city of Porto. Visit the Palacio da Bolsa, also known as the historic Stock Exchange, and the Igreja da São Francisco. The Church of St. Francis, a former convent church, was built in the Gothic style. When designers remodeled it during the baroque period, they kept the rose window, which remains today. Cap off today's discovery with a visit to a port wine cellar. Port's rich, fortified wine is known around the world. Enjoy a tasting before returning to the ship. (Moderate)

Porto by Tram and Flavors of Porto. Trams are a popular way to get around Porto. Hop aboard one today and explore the city all the way to the mouth of the Douro River. See traditional fishermen's homes along your ride. Visit the Museu do Carro Elétrico, a showcase of the trams history in Porto. The extensive collection of trams features the Americanos, the city's oldest cars pulled by horses. The excursion concludes with a tasting of local specialties. (Moderate)

Free Time: You may wish to return to Porto town via the complimentary shuttles. Enjoy time to explore the town or pick a sunny spot along the river to enjoy daily life.

Enrichment: Alto Douro Wine Region. Portugal's most famous wines come from this bountiful region. Join a local expert to learn about the UNESCO Alto Douro Wine Region, one of the world's oldest wine regions.

Dinner is served on board your ship.

Musical Tuna. Cap off the evening with a special musical performance by a "Tuna" band, a group of university students who sing traditional serenades.

Day 7 | Porto | Peso da Régua

MS Amalia Rodrigues

Guimarães, Cradle of Portugal. Discover Guimarães, the birthplace of Portugal's first king and the nation, on a walking tour through this charming town. Step inside Igreja de Nossa Senhora da Oliveira. This 14th-century church was built by King João I in tribute to the Virgin Mary after he won the Battle of Aljubarrota against Portugal's Castilian enemies. Visit the Palace of the Dukes of Bragança, an opulent estate in the city. Then enjoy some time at leisure in Guimarães to make your own discoveries. (Moderate)

Coastal Walk and Afurada. Take a guided walk along the Atlantic coastline and the Douro. Pass through São Pedro da Afurada, a typical fishing village, where you can see daily life in motion. Along the way, enjoy a beautiful view of Porto and Ribeira Square. Continue to the renowned port wine cellars of Vila Nova de Gaia, and enjoy a tasting at one of the cellars before ending your walk back at the ship. (Active)

Return to the ship and enjoy lunch on board as the ship cruises the beautiful Douro River.

Trade stories about your day during dinner on the ship.

Day 8 | Peso da Régua | Barca d'Alva

MS Amalia Rodrigues

Museu do Douro and Solar de Mateus. Disembark the ship and take a short walk to the Museu do Douro, the Douro Museum, for a glimpse into the history of the Douro winemaking region. The museum is the former administrative building and warehouse for the local winemaking consortium formed in the 18th century. Continue on a scenic drive through the vineyard-covered countryside to the Solar de Mateus, an 18th-century baroque palace featuring the frilly architectural flourishes of the time. Stroll through the opulent halls and enjoy a walk through the manicured gardens. (Moderate)

Return to the ship for lunch and relish an afternoon of scenic cruising through the Douro River Valley. Notice how the banks of the river are lined with multicolored vineyards that grow the grapes used to make port.

Delight in delicious regional cuisine on the ship.

Gather for a wonderful performance by local dancers.

Day 9 | Barca d'Alva | Salamanca, Spain

MS Amalia Rodrigues

Personalize Your Journey | Choose one of the following excursions.

Salamanca City Tour. Take a scenic drive to Salamanca this morning. See charming villages, olive groves and farms on your way to beautiful Salamanca. Upon arrival, explore the historic university town on foot. Step inside the ornate cathedral and discover the famous 13th-century university. (Moderate)

Salamanca Tapas Tour. After a pretty drive to Salamanca, join your guide for a Spanish foodie tour through the city center. Stop by several eateries to sample a variety of typical Spanish tapas and local bites. Your tastings may include flavorful patatas bravas, Spanish salads and classic meats, such as Spain's signature Jamón Ibérico. And tapas taste best with a glass of wine, of course! (Moderate)

Enjoy lunch and free time in Salamanca before returning to the ship.

Join friends new and old for dinner.

Day 10 | São João da Pesqueira | Pinhão

MS Amalia Rodrigues

Depart Barca d'Alva and spend the morning surrounded by stunning riverside scenery. Lunch is served on board.

Porto's Wine Road. Drive through the scenic Alto Douro wine region. Stop at the beautiful viewpoint of São Salvador do Mundo for views over the Douro Valley, where the hills are covered with groves of olive and almond trees as well as grapevines. Visit the pretty town of São João da Pesqueira for a short walking tour and some free time. Afterward, stop at a quinta, a winery, for a tour of the facilities, an informative presentation about port wine making in the Douro Valley and a tasting of the local product. (Mild)

An Evening of Folklore. Enjoy an engaging and colorful local folk show on board the ship. Singers and dancers showcase the Portuguese culture through traditional song and regional costume. (Mild)

Day 11 | Pinhão | Lamego | Porto

Lamego. Sitting in the heart of the port-producing Douro Valley, Lamego is one of the country's prettiest towns. Visit Nossa Senhora dos Remedios, an 18th-century baroque church overlooking the city. Admire the granite staircase adorned with azulejos, Portugal's famous blue-and-white tiles. After the tour, walk down the steps or take the motor coach to the town center to enjoy some free time before boarding the ship. (Moderate)

Return to the ship for lunch. Spend your final afternoon sailing the Douro Valley as the ship nears Porto.

Tonight, celebrate your exciting river journey at a Farewell Reception and Dinner.

Day 12 | Porto | Depart for gateway city

After breakfast, disembark the ship in Porto. AHI FlexAir passengers traveling on flights that qualify for a group transfer and Land/Cruise Program passengers who have purchased seats on the group transfer depart for Porto Airport for your return flights home. Your Travel Director will provide the details.
